

Nominations Being Accepted for PCT Technician of the Year Awards

For the past 11 years, the PCT Technician of the Year Awards have recognized the achievements of the industry's frontline professionals. Each year, PCT's judges choose a trio of service professionals in the commercial, residential and termite categories. The winners are profiled in the December issue of PCT and are recognized during a special ceremony at a major industry event. Nominations are being accepted from now until July 18, 2008. Nominations can be submitted by filling out the online nomination form www.pctonline.com/techyear08online or by downloading a PDF of the form at www.pctonline.com/files/pdf/techyear2008.pdf and faxing it back to PCT. (Any supplemental materials that go with online nominations can be faxed to Brad Harbison at 330/650-0823). If you have additional questions, e-mail bharbison@giemedia.com.
