The Michigan Pest Control Association was pleased to announce the winners of 2007 scholarship awards at its recent annual summer meeting banquet at Great Wolf Lodge in Traverse City, Michigan. The MPCA announced LaMea Brown and Eric Rose, as the winners for this year's $1,500 and $500 scholarship award respectively. This fall, LaMea will be studying at Wayne State University and Eric will continue his studies his sophomore year at the University of Michigan, majoring in business finance. The MPCA Board of Directors, Foundation, and members wish LaMea Brown and Eric Rose the best in their academic careers.
